Charity Hospital School of Nursing
New Orleans, Louisiana
1974-75

Caring, giving of one's time and energy is the spirit of Charity and Charity School of Nursing. This everlasting inspiration of unselfishness began with a French sailor, Jean Louis, in 1763. He was concerned for the sick who were too poor to pay for medical help. In his will he stated, "I bequeath in perpetuity to the founding of a hospital for the sick of New Orleans." A home on Charters and Bienville housed the first Charity Hospital of New Orleans which was called Saint John's at that time. Later in 1786 another benefactor Don Andreas de Almonaster y Roxas aided the needy hospital and the name was changed to Charity Hospital of Saint Charles after the King of Spain.

Charity has been housed on Charters, Rampart, Canal and then to its present location on Tulane in 1939. Hurricanes, fires, and increased population have demanded the necessary additions and alterations. However, even though the buildings and locations have changed several times during the 238 years Charity has been in existence, the strength of Charity's dedication has not waned.

Charity School of Nursing founded in 1894 is an outgrowth of the same philosophy, love, and concern with unselfish dedication to the sick. Our school has been in operation for eighty years with an impressive number of 4329 graduates and many more to come in the future years. Changing times, trends, lifestyles and buildings haven't diminished the spirit and devotion of Charity nursing students and the other allied medical professionals.

Therefore, we dedicate this yearbook not only to our past but also to our future because as students of Charity, we are a mirror image of Charity's past history of dedication.

As the years have passed, administration has seen many faces come and go. Basically, administration has maintained its air of authority but some flexibility and objectiveness has invaded the rigid unbending administrative tradition.

The page features a wide, ornate border with a repeating floral and scrollwork pattern. Inside this border is a rectangular area with a diamond-shaped lattice background. Centered within the lattice is a large, solid black silhouette of a stylized, multi-lobed shape, resembling a traditional Islamic architectural element like a mihrab or a stylized flower. The text is positioned within the white space of this central silhouette.

Students have been coming together for the purpose of learning and attaining knowledge. As the modern age of technology moves forward, the knowledge attained becomes intricate and more advanced.

Senior Medical Surgical Nursing

Senior Medical-Surgical nursing integrates the skills necessary for a nurse to become competent in the medical and surgical areas of nursing using a team approach. This approach helps in the establishment of effective relationships with patients, families and other members of the health team.

Surgical Nursing

Surgery II takes into account the care necessary for the surgical patient as he passes through the intensive phases of care.

The areas are the SICU, Burn ICU, Pre and Post Operative wards and Neuro-Surgical wards.

Nursing of Children

Nursing of Children is geared toward enabling the student to learn skills necessary for providing effective care for the pediatric patient.

The course encompasses experiences in the PICU, pediatric emergency room, and the child development center, as well as on the infant ward, juvenile ward, and closed care center.

Community Nursing

The nurse's job goes further than the confined walls of the hospital. Community nursing broadens the students' scope of knowledge by placing her in the teaching position as she educates and cares for those outside of the hospital.

Junior Medical-Surgical Nursing

Doctor did you find the missing lap ...
 Sorry, but we're out of heavy clamps ...
 No, no this is recovery.

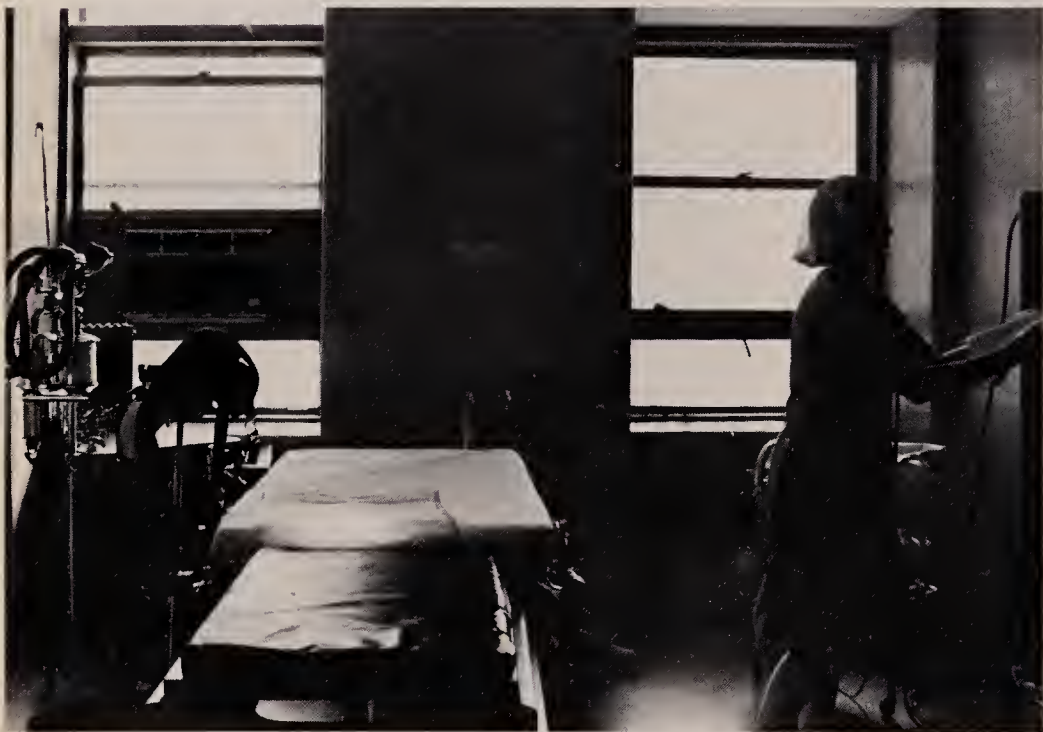

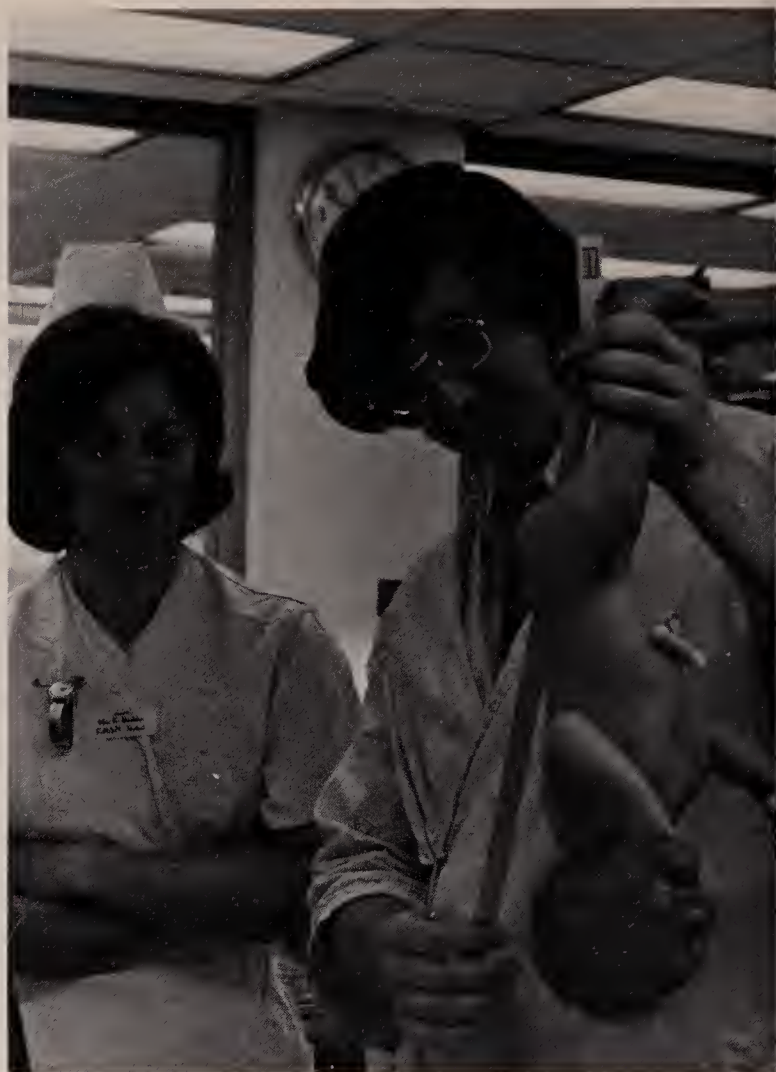

Miss Lachute, you forgot your cap again ... A person could go cross-eyed trying to regulate these gadgets ... Medicines and charting ... a never ending nursing process.

Maternity Nursing

So quiet and peaceful ... the calm before the storm ... Let's see, is this meconium or transitional?

Loving and caring are so important
... Hurry, Ron is 10 centimeters dilated and his jugular pressure is 300/
180.

Junior Pediatrics

Providing comfort, nutritional needs ... Accuracy in medicine and charting ... Burn scrubs ... an unpleasant nursing task.

Introduction to Nursing and Medical Surgery

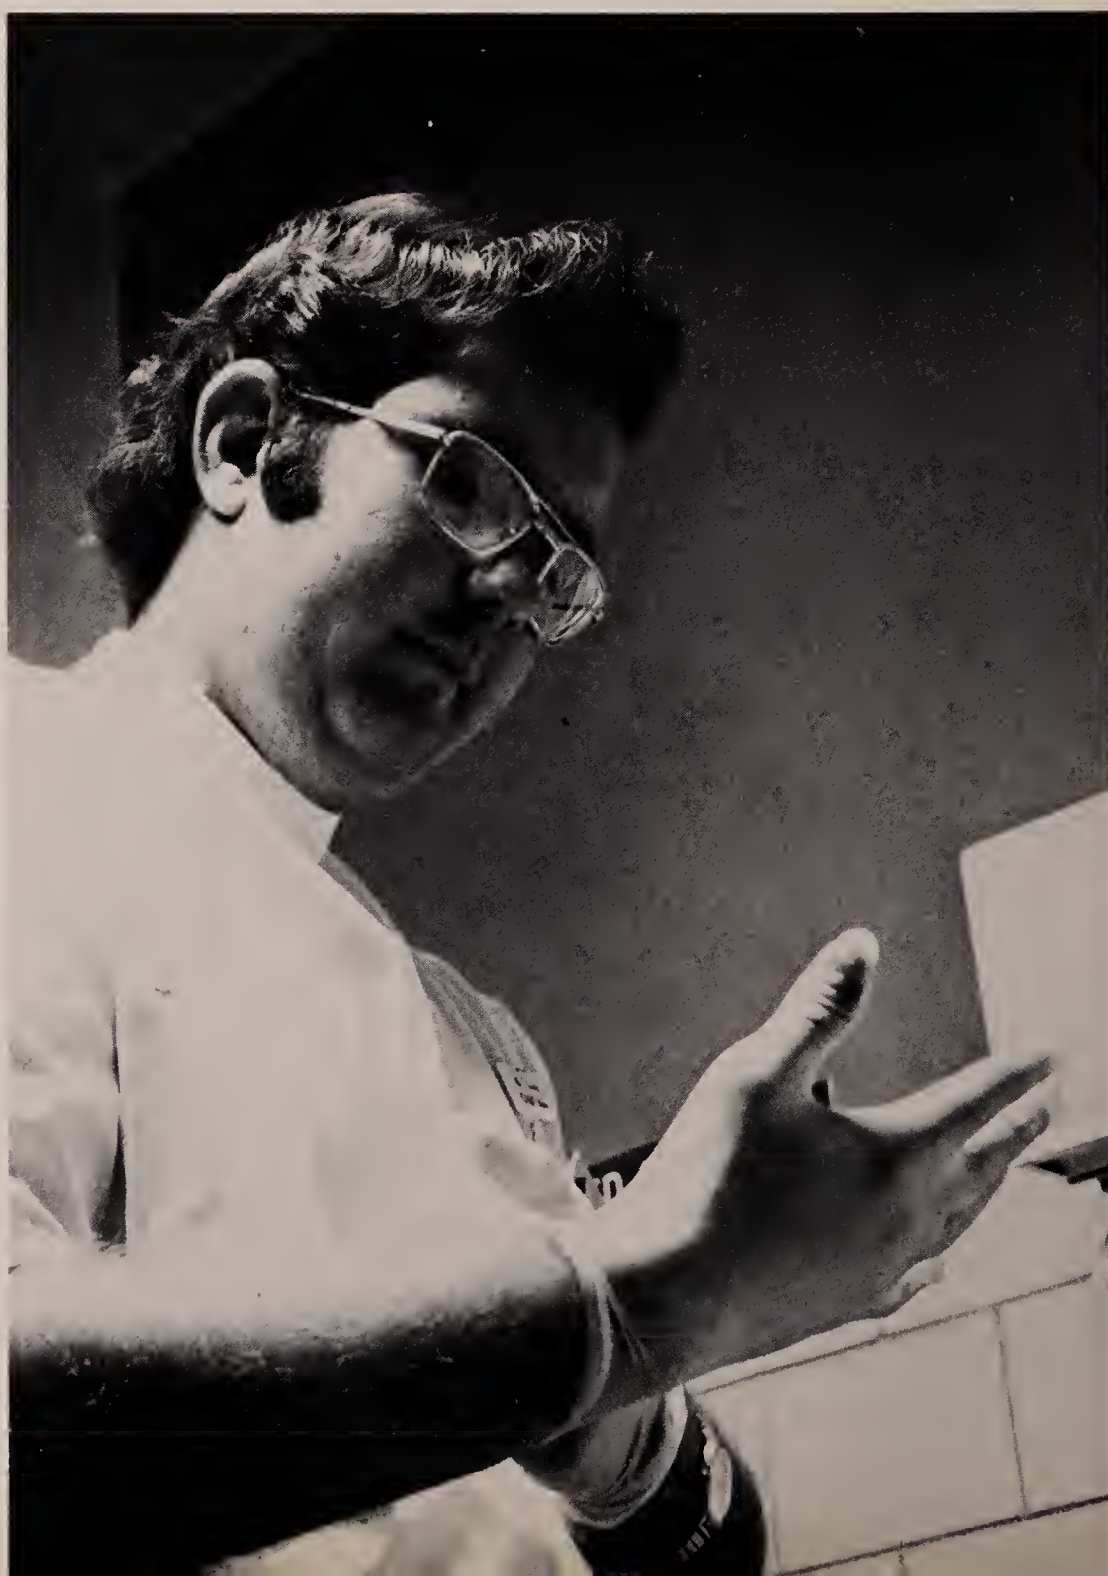

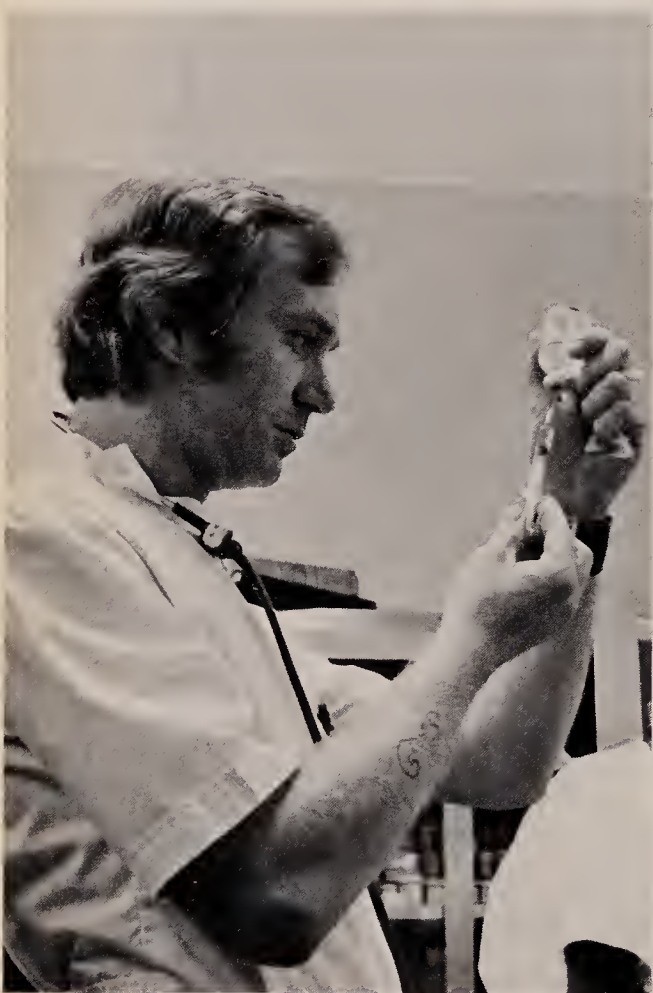

Day begins with pre-conference. Vital signs are a must.

Freshmen Sciences

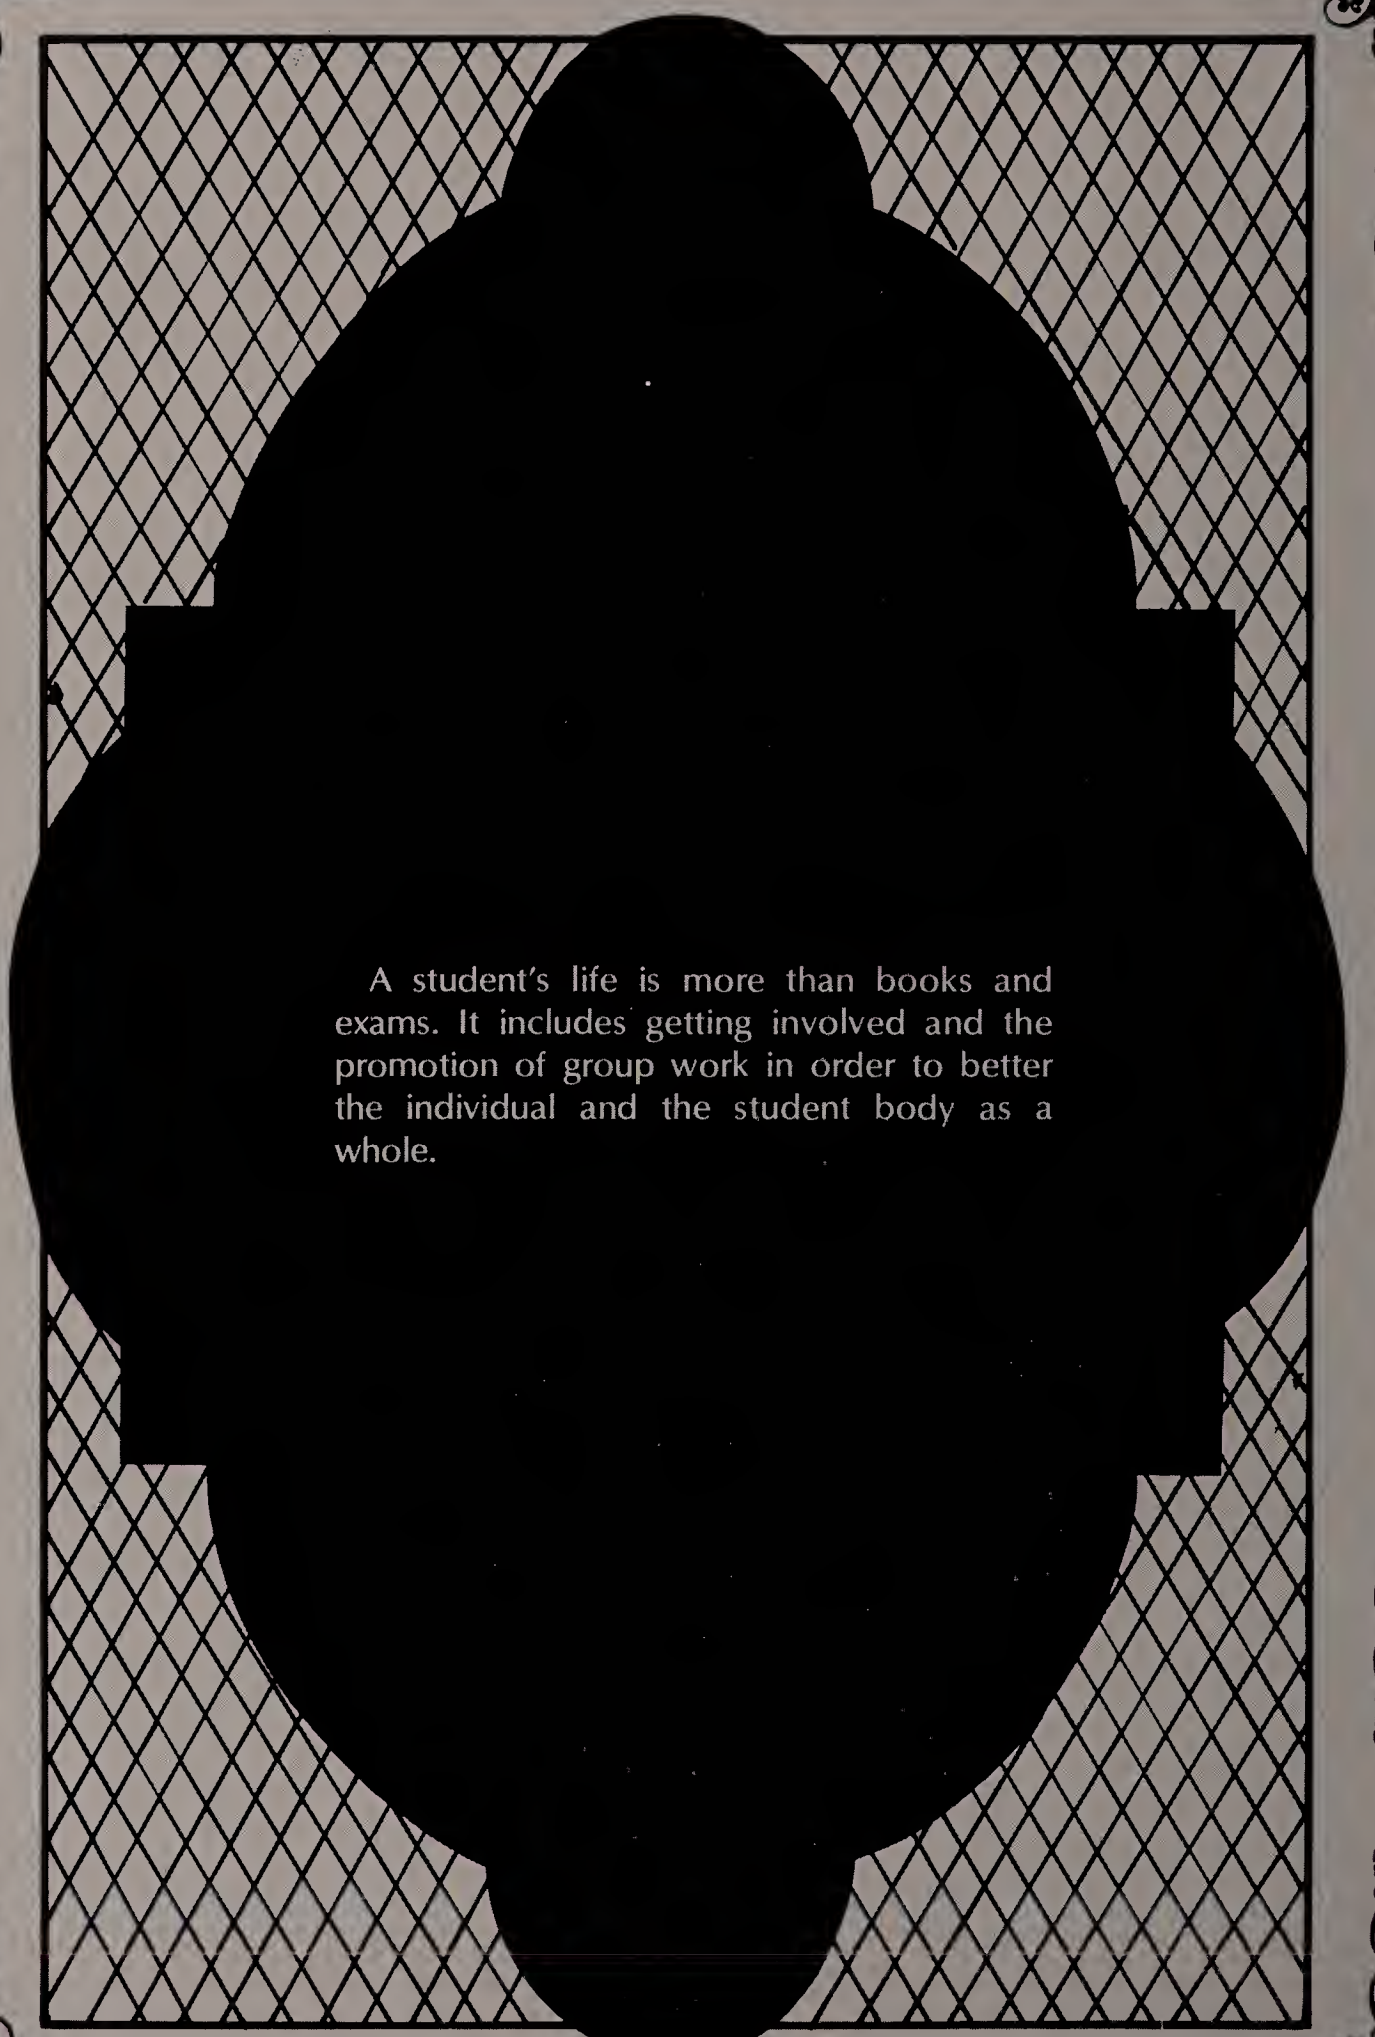

Hitch a ride, catch the bus,
(if they're not on strike) or
wake up before the crack
of dawn to flag the Charity shuttle bus.

The page features a large, solid black silhouette of a stylized figure, possibly a person in a dynamic pose, centered against a background of a fine, repeating diamond or lattice pattern. This central composition is enclosed within a rectangular frame. The frame is composed of several layers: an inner border of a repeating diamond pattern, followed by a wide white space, and then an outer border of a complex, repeating floral and scrollwork design. The overall aesthetic is formal and decorative.

A student's life is more than books and exams. It includes getting involved and the promotion of group work in order to better the individual and the student body as a whole.

Charity Hospital Association of Student Nurses has taken on an expanding role this year. The National Student Nurses' Association has for sometime now adopted project "Breakthrough" as its priority. The New Orleans area was recently granted $3,000 to work toward meeting the goals of this project and Charity functions as the main base. We have set up a regional committee with all New Orleans area nursing schools involved and are now planning ways to reach out to minority groups (males, blacks, Spanish speaking, etc.). Hopefully, CHASN will provide increasing opportunities for students to become involved in community projects in the future.

Nancy Bourgeois was CHASN's nominee for Student Nurse of the State.

CHASN advisors are Mrs. Mary Ann Wormuth and Ms. Sharon Rutledge.

Breakthrough board includes Pedro Garrido, Chairman; Wendy Manint, Co-chairman; Mrs. Mary Ann Wormuth, Advisor.

The Athletic Club, composed of volleyball, basketball, and softball teams, is coached by Norman Bartholomew. Charity's team is a member of the Commercial Athletic Association, competing against various business-affiliated teams throughout the city. We have enjoyed much success in the past few years, and this year both the volleyball and basketball teams remained undefeated champs.

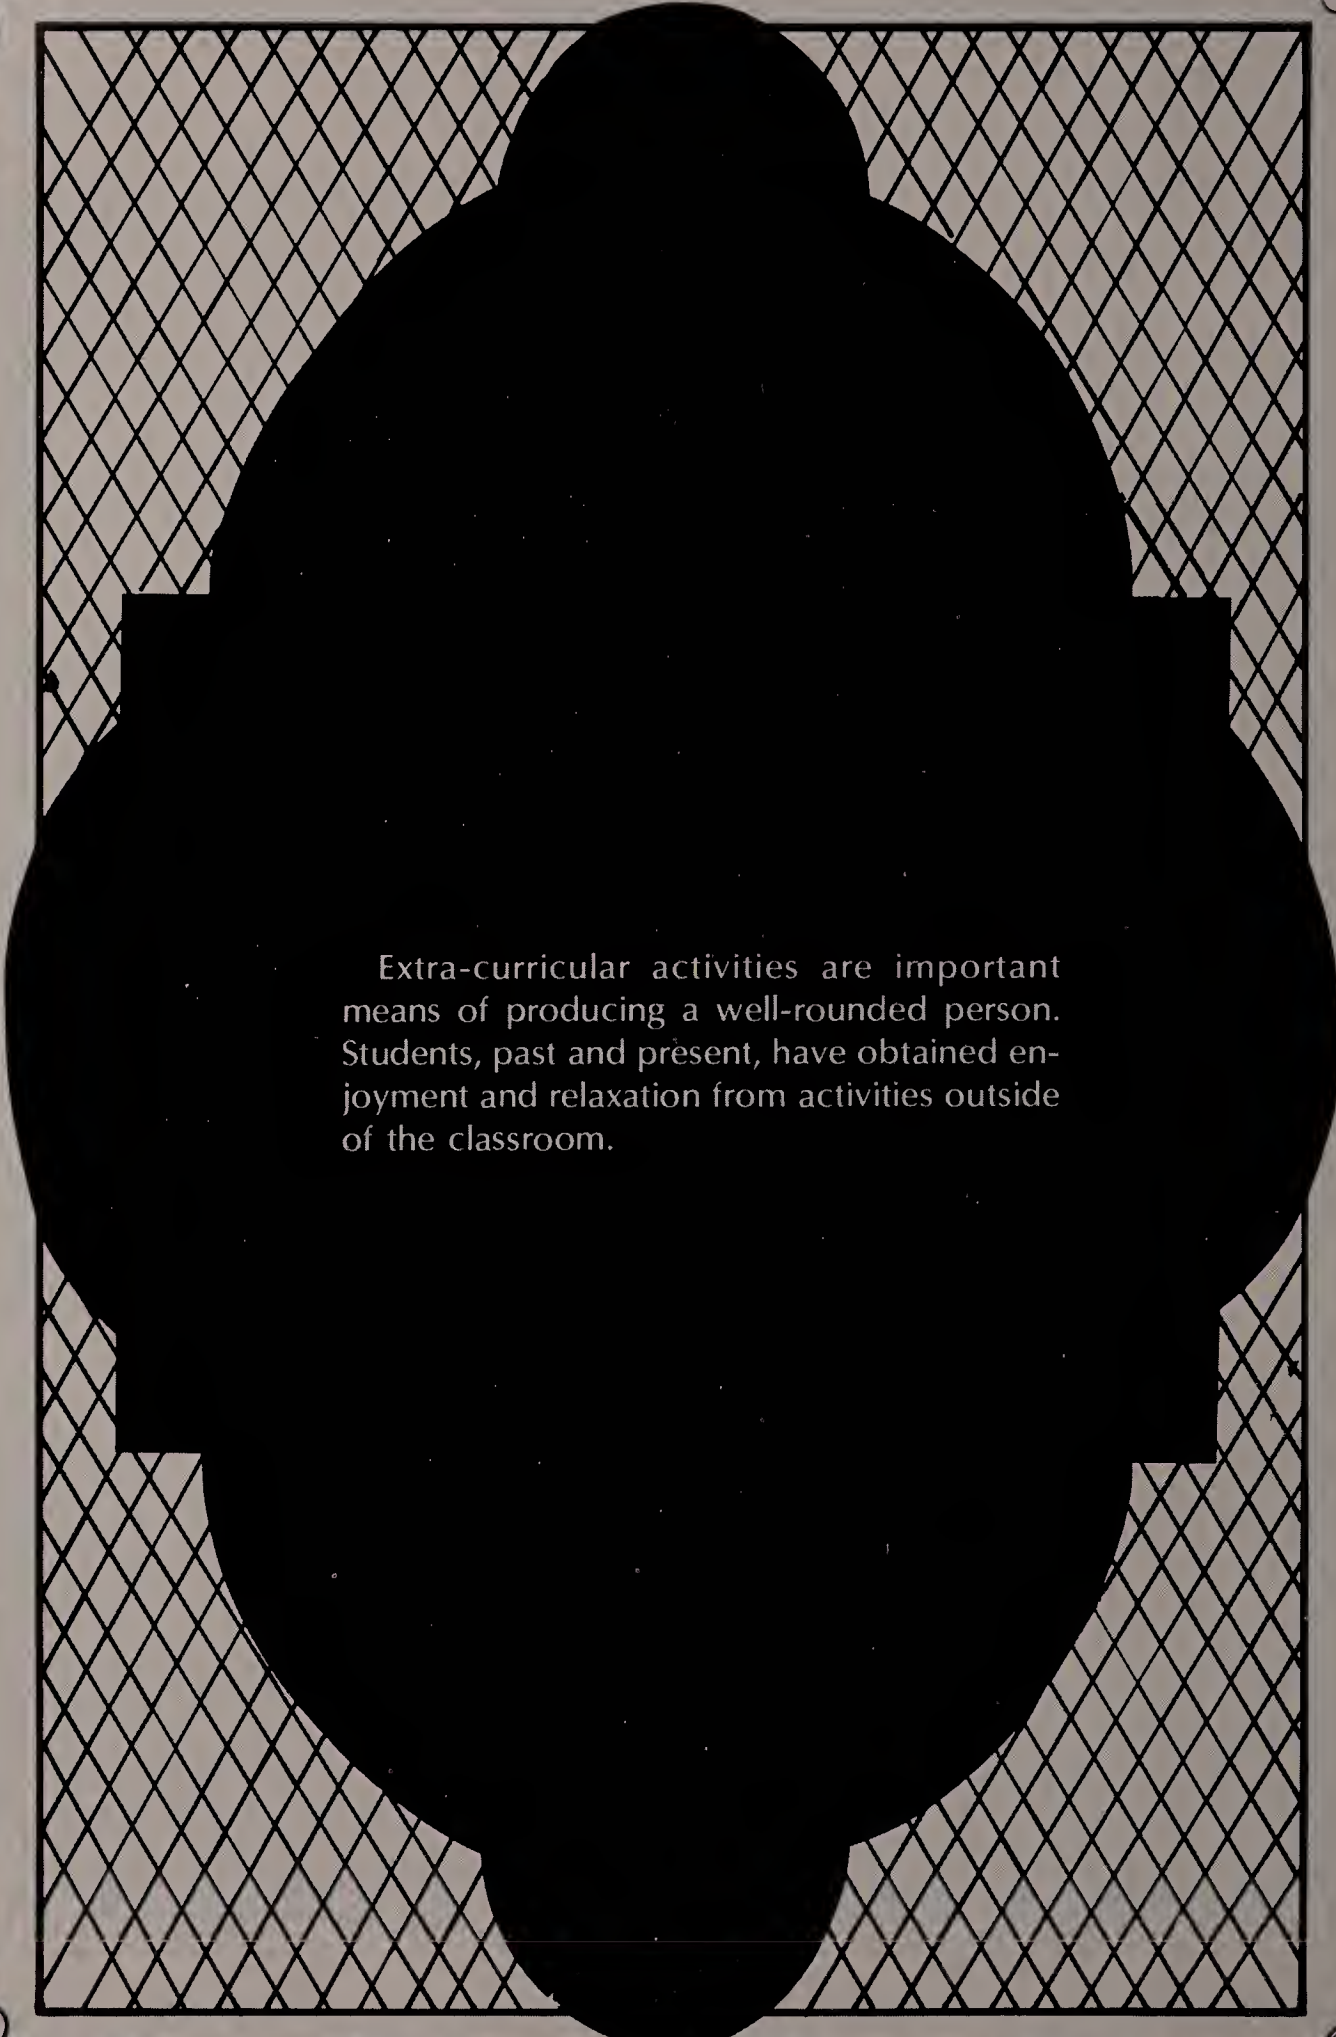

Yoga classes are offered weekly under the direction of Paul Shepard, Junior student.

Karate is offered weekly under the direction of Billy Wilkinson, Senior student, who has his black belt in karate. Meetings include general body conditioning, basic karate movements and instructions in self-defense.

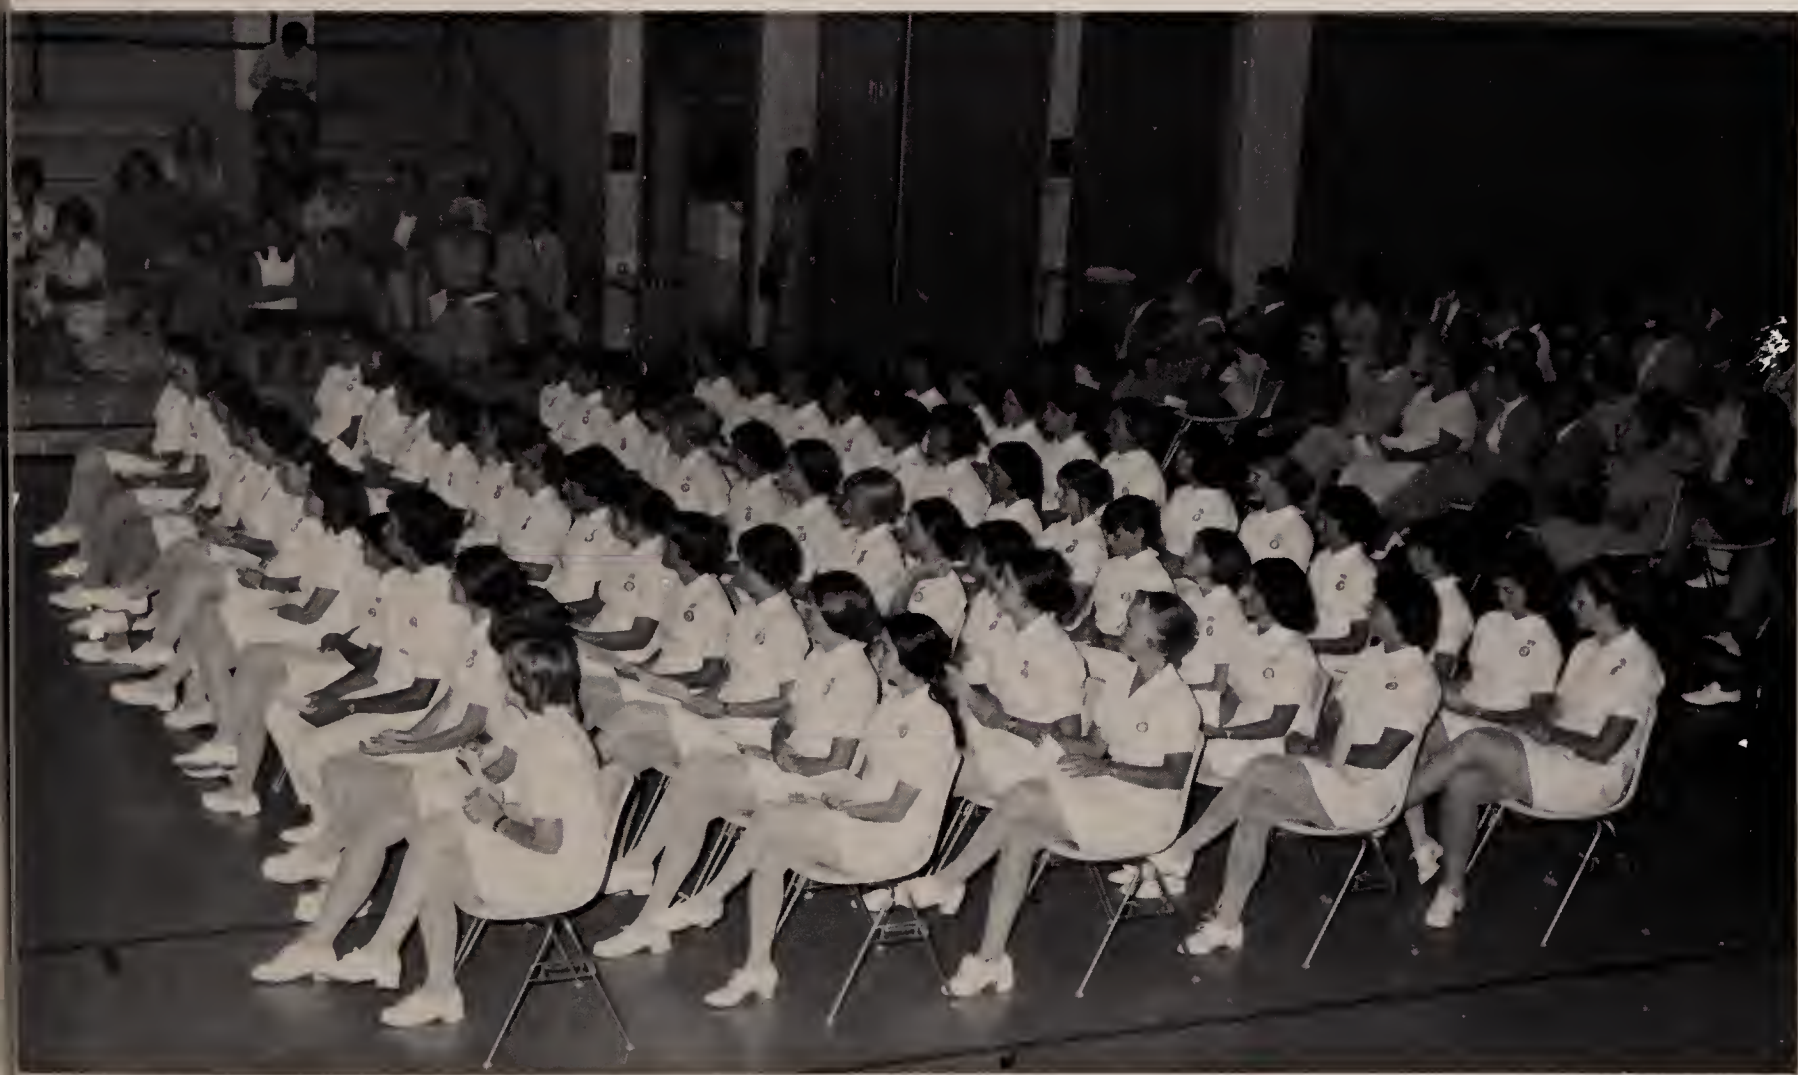

A large, solid black silhouette of a person is centered on the page. The silhouette is set against a rectangular background filled with a repeating diamond or lattice pattern. The entire composition is framed by a wide, ornate border featuring intricate scrollwork and floral motifs.

Extra-curricular activities are important means of producing a well-rounded person. Students, past and present, have obtained enjoyment and relaxation from activities outside of the classroom.

For many months I observed my Caps and Capes Staff as they continuously worked on our school annual. They showed talent, harmony, and the desire to make our yearbook a very special diary of our memories. Our basic theme has been a contrast of the old and the new, but as I see the finished product being mailed for publication, I realize we have upheld a spirit of Charity that remains the same from yesterday, to today, to tomorrow. Our book is more than pages with ink—it's a sign that once more we have been brought together in the spirit of love and have succeeded to make our actions and daily events worth remembering. Thanks to each and everyone of the Caps and Capes staff for a job well done.

Hail! Alma Mater, Hail!
We sing to thee:
Hold high the torch we bear for Charity.
Keep her name the greatest name;
Spread her glory and her fame;
Hail! Alma Mater, Hail to Charity!

Hail! Alma Mater, Hail!
We sing to thee:
Raise high our voices, hail to Charity!
May we keep our courage high;
Never let our spirit die;
Hail! Alma Mater, Hail to Charity!
